1) Research project proposal

Student Name:

Supervisors:

Date of submission:

The provisional title (and subtitle) of the dissertation:

A brief description of the issue that the research project will investigate (max. 200 words):
The significance of the research project for the chosen (sub)discipline and for theology in general (max. 100 words):

The main research question (only one and to be formulated in max. 30 words):

The methodology to be used (max. 200 words):
A provisional table of contents (max. 250 words):

A brief description of the content of the planned chapters (max. 500 words):
A time schedule including the planned date of the public defense (approx. a half year after acceptance by the supervisors of the final text of the complete manuscript) (max. 100 words):

An indication of the research time per week to be invested by the PhD student during the planned period:

(when written in English) an indication of the level of competence in English, according to the TOEFL norms or equivalents:
The PhD student’s CV (max. 300 words):

A provisional bibliography (max. 500 words):